Impressions from the Myrrh-Streaming Icon of the Theotokos:

The smell of roses floated in the air, but there were no roses there.

There was a peace and accepting strength, yet no other person here in that moment just me.

There was a power of gentleness and grace, but the church was empty, the altar held a hushed few.

On the table little bags held tiny bits of cotton soaked with myrrh. Small card likeness of the icon that were anointed with the myrrh.

Tears rushed to my eyes. She was here but the her icon had left yesterday.

A single moment in the quiet of the morning, yet her love for God's children filled the church.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Epistle – Romans 12:6-14

Brothers and sisters: having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; he who teaches, in his teaching; he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who contributes, in liberality; he who gives aid, with zeal; he who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with brotherly affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Never flag in zeal, be aglow with the Spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints, practice hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

Gospel – Matthew 9:1-8

At that time Jesus got into a boat and he crossed over and came to his own city. And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, lying on his bed; and when Jesus saw their faith he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven." And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming." But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins" -- he then said to the paralytic -- "Rise, take up your bed and go home." And he rose and went home. When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men.
