9TH Sunday after Pentecost

HE PRAYS UNCEASINGLY WHO COMBINES PRAYER WITH NECESSARY DUTIES AND DUTIES WITH PRAYER. ONLY IN THIS WAY CAN WE FIND IT PRACTICABLE TO FULFILL THE COMMANDMENT TO PRAY ALWAYS. IT CONSISTS IN REGARDING THE WHOLE OF CHRISTIAN EXISTENCE AS A SINGLE GREAT PRAYER. WHAT WE ARE ACCUSTOMED TO CALL PRAYER IS ONLY PART OF IT. - ORIGEN

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Epistle – 1 Corinthians 3:9-17

Brethren, we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it. For no other foundation can any one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any one builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw -- each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If any one destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and that temple you are.

Gospel – Matthew 14:22-34

At that time, he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat by this time was many furlongs distant from the land, beaten by the waves; for the wind was against them. And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear. But immediately he spoke to them, saying, "Take heart, it is I; have no fear." And Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus; but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "O man of little faith, why did you doubt?" And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God." And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

The following is a letter received from Sandra Arnaut to all of us:
To: Fr. Robert and St. Paul should like to say hello to all of you. With your thoughts and prayers I am recovering. Thank you from my heart for all the kindness. Time goes by and it has been over a month of Sundays since I have been to church. And, I need more time to rest and heal. Therefore, I am letting you all know I miss you. I miss coming to church on Sunday.
Please keep me in your prayers and I as well will keep all of you in my prayers too.
I will be in touch soon.
God Bless,
Sandra
